

Service Evaluation Approval

Service evaluations (SE) are typically designed and conducted to judge current care with no reference to a standard.

The SE process is simple, see the Service evaluation flow diagram.

Below are 3 examples of service evaluations from clinical units at RNOH:

- A review of rehabilitation provision for Bone Sarcoma patients after surgery
- Evaluation of patient's satisfaction following spinal surgery
- Clinical outcome of primary reverse shoulder arthroplasty with prosthesis