

Annual Guttman's conference

The 35th Guttman Conference is taking place on 5th & 6th July 2018

This year's theme is: Looking Ahead – the Future of Spinal Cord Injury

It is hosted by the Princess Royal Spinal Injuries Centre, Sheffield

Venue: Sheffield Hallam University - City Campus, Howard St, Sheffield S1 1WB

Download the various presentation slides from 2013, which RNOH hosted, below:

Guttman Conference 2013

guttman conference programme 2013 (244.9 KB) exploring impact of spinal cord injury on partner relationships (287.39 KB)

horatios garden 1 (2.17 MB)

horatios garden 2 (2.35 MB)

horatios garden 3 (836.15 KB)

bowel management (2.5 MB)

lifelong learning for lifelong care (431.91 KB)

method of documenting ASIA scale using OMR (1.39 MB) midlands centre for spinal injury outreach service (553.3 KB)

non traumatic spinal cord injury (876.36 KB)

palliative medicine (4.16 MB) provision of lifelong care (918.41 KB) pushing bak to the future III (118.33 KB) review of intrathecal baclofen in Management of Spinal Spasticity (1.98 MB) revision of intrathecal drug delivery (3.05 MB) skin presentation (442.87 KB)

transverse myelitis in children (1.85 MB)

© *Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital Trust, Brockley Hill, Stanmore, Middlesex HA7 4LP. Tel: 020
3947 0100*