

Employee online

Employee Online allows employees to book their leave and request their shifts using an e-rostering system called HealthRoster.

Employee Online enables employees to plan their working day.

For managers, this system is used to plan staffing requirements, report on enhanced hours, overtime, sickness, TOIL and annual leave.