

Chaplaincy services

Anglican Chaplain: The Reverend Wendy Brooker

On-site Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and on call for emergencies

Roman Catholic Representative: Father Dan Magnier

(St William of York)

Visits by request

Jewish Lay Visitor: Mr Stephen Hyman

Visits by request

Muslim Lay Visitor: Mr Mohammed Iqbal

Visits by request

The Chaplain is available to offer the following:

- Anointing of the sick for healing, especially before surgery
- Reconciliation
- Bedside Holy Communion
- Private prayer
- Someone to listen and talk with
- Last rites
- Weekly Holy Communion service in the Chapel at 12.45pm on Thursdays

Chaplaincy seeks to offer staff, patients and visitors of any denomination, any faith or none, a focus for their spiritual needs.

*“Where mercy, love and pity dwell,
There God is dwelling too”*