Spinal surgical unit

The Spinal Surgical unit at RNOH includes one of the largest Spinal Deformity Services in Europe. Referrals to this service come from throughout the UK and internationally, and the unit has a world-renowned reputation for its pioneering work. Specialist Spinal Surgeons treat a wide variety of patients from simple to very complex problems.

Range of Services

Acute:

- Metastatic spinal cord compression
- MSCC referral form
- Myeloma
- Myeloma referral form
- Spinal Infection referral form
- Spinal Tumour referral service
- Spinal Trauma referral form

Non-Acute

Surgical and non-surgical management of children and adults with congenital and acquired spinal deformity ranging from vertebral (spinal) and neuro-muscular disease to trauma and tumours. This includes:

- Infantile Scoliosis
- Adolescent Idiopathic Scoliosis
- Ankylosing Spondylitis
- Muscular Dystrophies
- Syndromic Scoliosis
- Cerebral Palsy patients with associated spinal deformity

Diagnostic Facilities:

- MRI and CT scanning
- Bone Scanning
- Bone densitometry
- CT guided Biopsy
Referrals

Referrals are accepted from GPs and hospital consultants

Key Contacts

- Susan Lister, Senior Nurse, Spinal Deformity Unit 020 8909 5328 bleep 704
- New Appointments Spinal - If you know your consultant please contact their secretary, if unsure please call: 0203 947 0053
- Follow-ups - 0203 947 0053