

Sample Method Statement

Contractors will be required to include a document entitled Method Statement. This should detail precisely how the work in the Specification is to be undertaken and the methodology to be adopted in respect of ensuring that the Trust will receive full compliance with the specification and the requirements of all Health & Safety legislation. A sample method statement can be downloaded.

Download Files (Password Only):

Method Statement lay out \(44 KB\)